

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Tuesday - 7 April 1964

Page 2

25X1

25X1 6. [Redacted] Senator Daniel B. Brewster, accompanied by his executive assistant, John Sullivan, had breakfast at the Agency with the Director, Kirkpatrick, Cline, Helms, Houston and Warner. There was a general discussion concerning the Agency and afterwards the Senator was given a quick look at the Signal Center and the Paramilitary Static Display. The Senator expressed his sincere appreciation for the opportunity to visit the Agency and added that it was most informative.

25X1 7. [Redacted] Senator Leverett Saltonstall visited the Agency and had about an hour's discussion with the Director. Afterwards I took him for a quick walk around the building. The Senator was pleased to have had the opportunity to come to the building.

25X1 8. [Redacted] Talked with Mr. William Pitts in the office of Representative Leslie Arends in connection with the questions posed by Representative Feighan to the CIA Subcommittee after Mr. Arends' floor speech. Mr. Pitts indicated that Arends was not feeling very well and while he wanted to go into this matter, requested we put it over until tomorrow.

25X1 9. [Redacted] Mr. Blandford telephoned to advise that H. Con. Res. 3, Mrs. Kelly's proposal for a Joint Committee on Intelligence, was scheduled for debate before the Rules Committee tomorrow morning. He is preparing some notes for Mr. Vinson who will appear to oppose the matter and requested assistance from the Agency first thing tomorrow morning. He added that Mr. Arends would also appear if he were well enough. The Director has been notified and indicated that I should offer any help desired to Mr. Vinson.

25X1 10. [Redacted] Mr. Helms visited with Representative Gerald Ford in accordance with previous arrangements. Mr. Helms indicated the session had gone very well.